Quiz Night 18th July

Our Quiz Night, held on Tuesday 18 July was full of 54 eager 'quizzers' plus our very own Quiz Master Eric Everatt (who did a great job pitching the 100 questions so that most of us knew a lot of the answers). I'm sure that the purchases from the bar helped with the inspired thoughts .

(thanks to Peter Lee for the image).

The winning team was Team F (Peter & Ann Sharples, Alan & Eileen Goodall, Roland & Diane Pettitt and Barry Rudolph).

With thanks to all who helped on the night setting-up and clearing away, especially Eric (Quiz Master), Pete Mitchell & Pete Swaffield (Bar) and Chris Liddle & Jeanette Swaffield (who made sure everyone got the meal they'd ordered) and, of course, Phil Bayley for checking all the BACS payments.

Liz Mitchell

Saturday 29th July

A large and enthusiastic number of members from the Revival Fellowship church in Wealdstone had arranged to come to the club to try out our wonderful bowls game.

We were blessed with the weather and Anne Snell was supported by a number of club members to assist with the bowling and to provide tea and biscuits.

Having served up the drinks a well earned rest in the sun.

Antique Bowls Day 12th August

For the first time in the 9 years of the antique bowls competition we had some rain. The weather was completely indecisive swapping between cloud, light drizzle, blizzard and warm sunshine

Last year the competition started at 9 am and the number of ends was shortened so that the event could be completed in the morning due to the very hot weather!!

However the event was warmly embraced by the 16 intrepid bowlers and the spectators. As usual it was orchestrated by Geoff Thomas who once again drove the many miles from East Anglia to Harrow with his selection of antique wooden bowls.

The event was organised with great efficiency as usual by Liz Mitchell who was thanked at the end by Geoff.

Administration by Mary and Jim Hughes and Peter Mitchell who looked after the bar too.

The round robin format of the morning resulted in semi finals in the afternoon between Elaine Wake and Anne Snell and between Jai Mahadeo and Grant Rickells.

Action all round!

The final was an excellent match between Anne Snell and Grant Rickells.

This was very much enjoyed with some very close heads which were admired by the spectators who had stayed to find out how it was done!

After 12 hard fought ends Grant Rickells was awarded the sugar bowl runner up trophy together with a cash prize.

Looks like Grant is having a quick nap after all those ends!

Anne Snell once again was the winner of the teapot together with an even bigger cash prize. So does that make Anne a professional?

Once again thanks to Di and Geoff for coming all this way for this now traditional event.

Gala Day Bank Holiday Monday.

As usual this event was brilliantly organised by Liz Mitchell. Despite the fact that the park seemed remarkably empty for most of the morning and so we got many fewer members of the public participating, the morning was as success and we were very lucky with the weather.

Roy was in place to welcome visitors. Eileen was ready with advice on plants

June was on hand to provide tea to the helpers and visitors.

Families gathered to enjoy the activities and to make important purchases.

Some showed off their darts action (but didn't win - see later)

Others tried putting

Or had a go at bowling.

Newer membersand longer established members were present

As well as members Nick and Beryl Woolford who are off to pastures new

And a member Gary Norton who is joining us from Wealdstone.

Jamie managed to win 2 bottles of wine in the tombola.

Thanks to PJ for many of the photos.

Before our lunch which was splendidly provided by Jeanette and her team as usual, we had to clear up, arrange the tables and have the usual auction of promises run by Roy, our President.

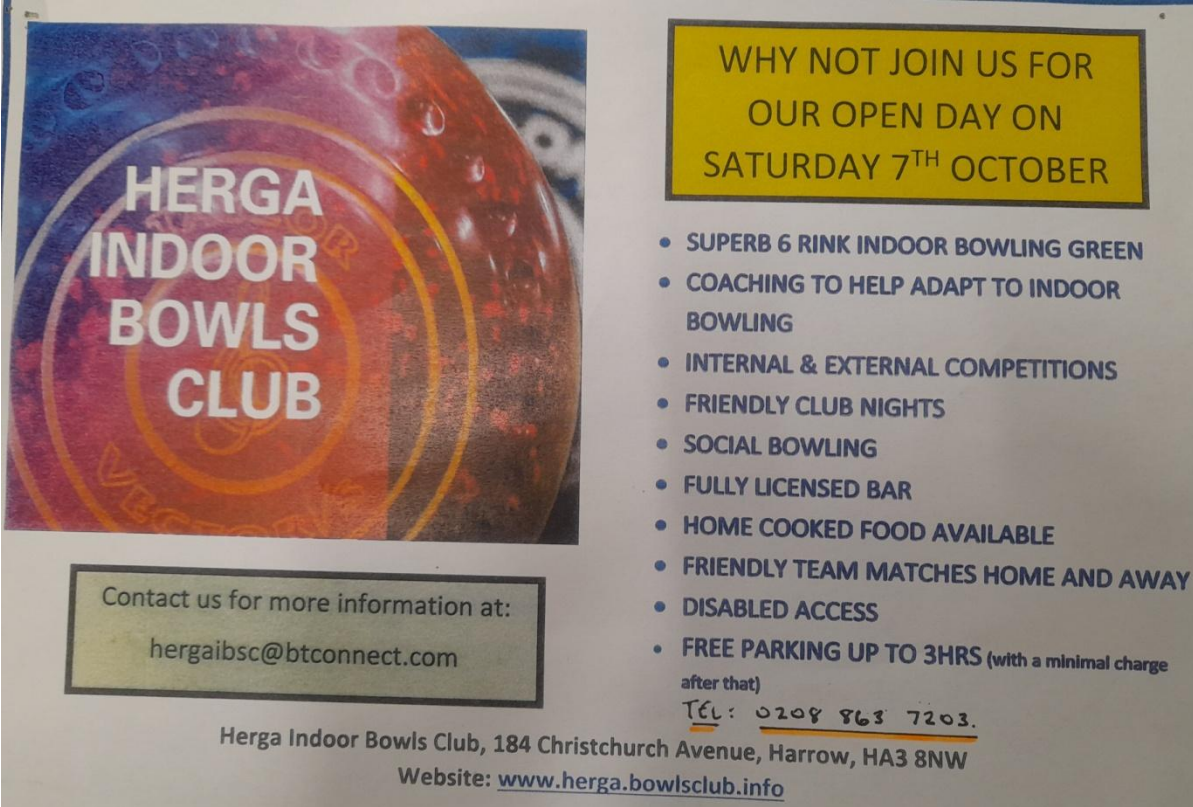

We were delighted to see some new promises by newer members – Vivian Vallance offered a home car wash and Satnam Loyal offering a trip to and from a London Airport.

After the horse race game we embarked on our round robin bowls game organised efficiently as usual by Doreen Bayley. The casting of the jack after the woods had been played on each last end caused considerable amusement.

The winning team were Elaine Wake, Rex Freeman and Marios Zachariades.
