Our Treasurer Phil kept an eye on the Auction of Promises, ably put under the hammer by our President Roy.

We were blessed with so many donations for the Tombola Stall and prizes that all of the unused ones will be put into the Raffle for the Dinner Dance at Sudbury Golf Club on 23 November.

What fantastic members we have. So much help on Gala day as well as all the work done by the green team every week. For instance Peter Lee recently varnished the benches.

Antique bowls

Even our past members are brilliant! Di and Geoff Thomas came, as usual to run the antique bowls day, all the way from Suffolk. Organised by Liz and Peter Mitchell just before they wizzed off on holiday and Mary Hughes.

Are we the ½ point club?

Bidgood A success (report from Tony Paulley, captain)

The Bidgood League, is an evening league, with the 1st Division consisting of 10 teams.

Played 9. Won 8. Total points 29.5

Shots for 385. Shots against 286. Plus 99 shots.

Final position 2nd, on shot difference.

In fact we finished joint top with Ladygate Bowls Club on 29.5 points. Sadly after playing 324 ends of bowls during the season, only to lose out by the marrow margin of plus 19 shots.

A great effort from the " A " Team squad. Also, my thanks to Grant, Magan, Brian M, Andrew, John S, Pradip, Mort, and Gary for their support throughout the season.

It has been an exciting and enjoyable summer of Bowls.

The bidgood A lost by ½ point but Vets A won their league by ½ point!!

So they had a celebration put on by the 2 captains Tony Paulley and Magan Kanjia.

Thanks to Liz for the photos
